So let's see: it's been agreed that

So let's see: it's been agreed that Microsoft has illegally used its monopoly position to hurt competitors and consumers, and the government wants to cave in with a slap on the wrists in the form of the currently-proposed settlement deal? We have antitrust laws for a reason, and letting Microsoft get away with their anticompetitive behavior (again) is not in line with those reasons. Please continue to push for a stricter set of remedies against this law-breaking behemoth.
